75 EXFOLIATOR
Dermalogica Daily Microfoliant

A few drops of water turn this ultra-fine powder into a creamy paste, then nonabrasive rice bran whisks away dead cells. "It's great for anyone with clogged pores," says N.Y.C. dermatologist Rosemarie Ingleton. Plus, the scrub contains licorice—which evens skin tone—and green tea to protect skin from free radicals. $50; dermalogica.com.

to use around the eyes, making quick work of stubborn waterproof mascara. $12; drugstore.com.

76 NIGHT CREAM
Olay Definity

This satiny whip gets down to business while you sleep, infusing collagen-plumping, skin-brightening glucosamine "deep below the surface," says N.Y.C. facial plastic surgeon Steven Pearlman. The results are "as good as you get from a more expensive product, without the high price," says L.A. dermatologist Debra Luftman. $24; target.com.

80 DAYTIME MOISTURIZER WITH SPF
Aveeno Positively Radiant SPF 30

Packed with hydrating soy and brightening light diffusers, this oil-free lotion evens out skin tone and "gives skin a fresh, dewy look," says Cincinnati dermatologist Drore Eisen. As an added benefit, it doubles as an effective daily sunscreen with "a higher SPF than most," says Wellesley, Mass., dermatologist Ruth Tedaldi. $16; ulta.com.

77 EDITORS' PICK
NIA 24 Eye Repair Complex

The star ingredient in this rich cream: pro-niacin, a molecule that speeds cell turnover, resulting in smoother, brighter skin. There's also a dose of vitamins C and E to guard against free-radical damage and licorice extract to fade dark spots. $65; go to instyle.com for discount.

78 MASK
Bliss Triple Oxygen

Formulated with free-radical-busting antioxidants such as vitamin C and grapeseed extract, this foaming mask "brightens and refreshes tired skin," says Great Neck, N.Y., dermatologist Jeannette Graf. $52; blissworld.com.

79 CLEANSER
CeraVe

This soap-free wash, loaded with moisture-rich ceramides, deeply cleanses and leaves skin soft and hydrated. Better still, the pros say, it is gentle enough
